

Kristen has been a Certified Baby Nurse for several years, she is CPR and first aid trained. She has experience with multiples, breastfeeding issues, scheduling, and much more.

She is a true and dedicated professional. Kristen also constantly updates her knowledge base with current literature, research and techniques.

In her spare time she enjoys reading, cooking and spending time with her family.

